April 2021

Notes from Colleen

Good things:

I've hugged a few people in the last month. People who were vaccinated and wearing a mask, but a hug just the same. It did my heart good. I've missed hugs.

My first grandchild is due May 24. A girl. I just finished quilting a baby quilt. My son said there is kind of a pink overload at his house ... so the quilt has lots of different animals and they aren't pink ... except for the flamingos. And I shopped in a store for baby clothes ... also not pink ... except for the onesie that came with the pants with strawberries on them.

I planted grass seed, and tomato plants, and they are both growing. I got kind of excited when after watering dirt for a week the tiny blades of grass started poking through. I'm not really much of a gardener. Sometimes you have to be patient for good things to happen.

The nominating committee has a full slate of volunteers willing to run for office. It will be presented at the April meeting. Additional nominees will be welcome from the floor ... in this case anyone attending the zoom meeting. Thank you to Carlene Hagen and Sandra Torres for working to fill the slate, and a big thank you to those who volunteered to run as well.

The virtual quilt show happened, even if the real one didn't. The members of this guild created some great quilts. Thanks to all who shared. The number of views is over 200 and more people are viewing it every day. It's good to share what we do.

The time when we can safely meet in person again seems closer than ever ... and that will be a very good thing!

Here's to the good things happening in all our lives! Look for them!

Programs and Speakers

As a newer quilter I was very interested in the tips Lori brought out in the presentation and the ebook she has for anyone to read. Hopefully everyone was able to hear something new to try out!

This month we will be listening to Christina Cameli on “Combining Designs.” This lecture will go into how you combine designs after you start to feel more comfortable with free motion quilting. Another stepping stool to further advancing your skills with free motion quilting.

Christina lives in Portland, Oregon and has authored 4 quilting books. She also teaches multiple online classes as well as designs quilts patterns and fabrics.

Next month we will be hearing from Trudy Cleveland on “How to Photograph your Quilts.” Since Covid started I think we have all taken (or in my case tried to take) pictures of the quilts we have made to send in for show and tell. Even when we go back to being in person again, I think photographs will still continue to be a way to share what we have done with others or just to keep for ourselves.

Don't forget to join in on the Sew Days happening every month. You don't even have to do the pattern provided, you can do a UFO or some other fun project you have going on.

Please feel free to contact us if you have ideas for speakers or classes, or if you have questions or suggestions to improve.

Quilt Show

Hello Quilty Friends!

I'm sew enjoying our Spring weather and hope you are too. Vaccinations and sunshine restore my energy and hopefulness. Sew many exciting quilty things are happening. The opportunity quilt will be heading to a retreat in April and we'll have a booth at Quilt Show Reno, June 10-12. The show hours are 10-5 Thursday and Friday and 10-4 Saturday at the Nugget. We're looking for volunteers to help us with the booth. If you'd like to come to a great show AND help out your fabulous guild for a few hours, (traditional adventure with a twist) contact me. For additional information on the show, visit www.quiltshowreno. I hope we see many of our members enjoying all the quilty goodness of the show.

We're continually looking for events to take the opportunity quilt to. If you're going to a retreat, taking a class, or attending an event you think would be appropriate for the quilt, please contact me. Traditional with a twist ways to sell opportunity quilt tickets are always welcome. As soon as local guilds begin meeting again (June 15th ?) we'll also be attending.

A heartfelt THANK YOU to all who are willing to be on the quilt show committee for the 2022 show. Many are returning from last year and a few new members have been added. I think we've already done the "twist" and am looking forward to a bit of "traditional."

Sew looking forward to meeting together again!

Sewing until I see you.

Community Service

Thanks to everyone for their help with Community Service. If you are looking for something fun to sew, let me know. We always have kits available and Elaine Rice has been busy cutting 5 inch squares for many of the Villa Rose patterns.

Thanks to the team for their work in sorting to keep quilts, tops and supplies organized: thank you Barbara Buehrle, Deanna Williams, Terrie Johnson, Helen Sousa, Gail Gilmore, Barb Gilmore and Janet Craver.

Thank you to Cheryl Clayton, Elaine Rice, Jan Milbourne, Sandra Torres, Nancy Wilson, Sheila Pond and Marilyn Hill for their participation. Please call me at 673-7044 if you are looking to participate. We need everyone because the need is great.

Quilt Guilds of the North Quarter

Another quarter with no meeting! We are hoping for a meeting next quarter in Paradise, and then another meeting in October in Fall River Mills. Here's hoping that everything is going OK by then and we can actually get together for meetings once again. I know everyone is anxious to each other after this past year of many unknowns.

Sharon Easter, Rep.

The Yuba-Sutter Fair is happening live and in person June 24 – 27. Valley Quilt Guild will again be helping in the Still Exhibits in Franklin Hall, where the quilts are displayed. This is a way we can contribute to our community, as well as getting a $1,000 reduction of the fees we pay for the main exhibit hall when we have our quilt show. For any members who feel comfortable doing so, we need volunteers for set-up and take-down of the quilts, and also to be at the quilt table in Franklin Hall during the fair. Being at the table involves selling raffle tickets, accepting quilt blocks, answering questions about the guild and giving a membership application if appropriate, and reminding people about not eating and no touching the quilts as they look at the exhibits. We do this in shifts – 3 shifts per day, 3 people per shift. The last time we did this we needed 36 volunteer slots to be filled. Please get together with a couple friends and volunteer for a shift!

The fair also needs quilt entries. The entry deadline is May 25. You can enter online at ysfair.com or you can send in a paper entry form. The fee for each quilt is $2.00. Quilts need to be delivered to Franklin Hall at the fair June 11, 2 pm to 8 pm and June 12, 9 am to 6 pm. Judging is closed to the public and takes place on June 13 at 9 am.

The guild needs entries in the block contest. We use these to make the quilts that are raffled off the next year. There is no fee to enter, and no entry limit. Entries are to be delivered to the Quilt Table in Franklin Hall by 3:30 pm on Saturday, June 26, 2021.

Complete rules and information for both quilt entries and block entries can be found at this link. <https://rolls.bubblup.com/VQG/fair>

The printable entry form and the quilt division descriptions follow.

Board Meeting Minutes

VALLEY QUILT GUILD BOARD MEETING

Zoom Meeting

April 15, 2021

Location: Zoom meeting

Date: April 15, 2021

Attendees: Colleen Pelfrey, President, Michelle Jones, 1st Vice President, Eileen Milligan, 2nd Vice President, Terry Nugent, Secretary, Janet Craver, Treasurer, Deanna Williams, 2021 Quilt Show Chairman, Carleen Hagen, Facilities, Diane Leighton, Fair Staffing, Block Contest and Community Service, Cooky Amarel, Fair Liaison & Parliamentarian, Nicki Lura, Membership, Sharon Easter, NCQC & QCNQ, Linda Matsumoto, Sunshine, Billie Lindgren, UFO, Barbara Gilmore

Time: 4:06 pm – 5:07 pm

A meeting of the Valley Quilt Guild Board was held on April 15, 2021. It was an online meeting using the ZOOM application since the pandemic quarantine is still in effect. It was called to order at 4:06 pm.

Secretary: A motion to approve the minutes of the last meeting was made by Cooky Amarel and seconded by Carleen Hagen. A unanimous vote followed.

Treasurer: We have a checking balance of $1,530.83 and a savings balance of $16,663.71.

Old Business: The virtual quilt show is online and ready to be voted upon.

Nominating Committee: Carleen Hagen has possible volunteers to run for the position of 2nd Vice President and is still working on finding someone for Treasurer. Cooky Amarel is willing to help train a new Treasurer.

New Business: Colleen Pelfrey and Michelle Jones, respectively, are willing to continue in the position of President and 1st Vice President if that is the pleasure of the membership. This exception to the term limit rule can only be accomplished through a motion and a member vote.

At the general meeting on March 31, 2021, Diane Steele moved and Jan Henrich seconded to make a 1 year exception to the two-year term limit rule, whereby Colleen Pelfrey and Michelle Jones would be able to serve for an additional year.

Membership voted by Zoom poll, and the results were unanimous: 100% in favor of the exception.

Fair: Cooky reported that the 2021 Yuba-Sutter Fair is going ahead with a normal fair June 24-27. There is not expected to be a big turnout for the craft rooms. Volunteers will be needed to help with the Franklin Hall exhibit room including setup and workers for each day of the fair. This allows our guild to receive our discount on the main exhibit hall during our show. Entry forms for submitting any quilt entries will be available on our website.

T-Shirts: We discussed getting Valley Quilt Guild T-Shirts made. Zak King Clothing in Marysville was suggested as a good place to have it done. Preordering and prepayment would be required. Deanna Williams is looking into it.

Carleen Hagen will check with CalTrans to learn if their facility will be available again in July if the Governor allows for large gatherings.

Ice Cream gathering in July? Diane Leighton stated that St. Andres is just starting to open, and Carleen will check with CalTrans. Having a gathering in a park was also an option.

Vice President Update: April's presenter will be Christina Cameli and May will be Trudy Cleveland.

Community Service: Incoming tops have slowed down. There are a couple of bindings which need to be done. Diane offered her house as an outdoor meeting place to film all the quilts for an upcoming Quilt meeting.

Opportunity Quilt/Quilt Show: We have a booth at the Reno show, June 10-12. We will not be charged for the space if we provide people to help set up and take down the show. The show will be set up on the 10th, taken down in the evening of the 13th. This should be a fun road trip!

Membership: Nicky Lura has approached Sew Katie Jean to become affiliate members. Membership will be due in May and will be mentioned in the May newsletter. There will be no change in fees.

Zoom Sew Day: 13 members participated. The Carnival Glass pattern by Villa Rosa was donated for those wishing to try something new.

Adjournment: The meeting was adjourned at 5:07 pm.

THE NEXT BOARD MEETING WILL BE ON MAY 10 AT 4 PM VIA ZOOM UNLESS OTHERWISE NOTED.
