February 2022

Notes from Colleen

Oh my goodness, it's almost March! It has been 3 years since Valley Quilt Guild has put on a live show! We are a little rusty, and we've had to do a few things a little differently, but Deanna is doing a great job of bringing it all together. I don't know about you, but I'm getting excited. I believe it is going to happen ... and I love watching the amazing people of this guild spring into action. I can't wait to see your quilts up close and in person. I'm excited to share what we do with the community as well. Spread the word!

On a different note, at the board meeting earlier this month, we talked about how in the last couple of years we have had a lot of new members join us. We now have over 160 members (we were at about 120 pre-pandemic). As we are slowly coming back together live, there may be some members who would appreciate someone friendly to sit with, and/or answer questions or show them the ropes as they become a part of our guild. If you are someone friendly who would like to make a connection with a new member, please let me know. And if you are a new member and would like to make a connection with a member who has been around awhile, we will try to make that connection for you at the hospitality table when you arrive at a live meeting. And just for the record, I am happy to answer any questions you might have if you contact me by phone, text or email ... And also just for the record, a great opportunity to make connections with other guild members is to come help set-up and/or take down the quilt show. It's almost show time! Let's do this!

Programs and Speakers

I just loved listening to Rami Kim last month and enjoyed viewing all her beautiful garments and quilts. I don't know about you, but I plan on taking some of her workshops at Sew Katie Jean in the next few months ☐

This month we will enjoy listening to Sandra Mollon. She will be sharing various quilts she has done in her Trunk Show. She is a textile artist in California and does hand applique. She has achieved many awards from her various quilts in multiple international and regional shows. She also enjoys traveling and meeting new people.

Marjan Kluepfel will be doing the workshop "Fabric Sculptures." Thank you to all who signed up for this workshop, it really would not be happening without your support. This really will be something new and different than we have had for a long time, I am sure all will enjoy ☐

Please feel free to contact us if you have ideas for speakers or workshops, or if you have questions or suggestions to improve. We would love to hear any feedback you have.

Quilt Show

Hello Quilty Friends,

It's Show Time! And we need YOU! Yes, I'm talking to YOU! Sign-up to help at the show. There are sew many jobs that need doing before, during and after and I know we can find something for YOU. Don't like to stand, no problem. We have a sit-down job for YOU. Don't like to sit, no problem. We have a stand-up job for YOU. The cold, hard truth is...Traditional With a Twist won't be the same without YOU! I'm available by email, phone or text and I'm sew looking forward to hearing from YOU!

In just a few weeks (4 ½ to be exact) the stunning Traditional With a Twist Opportunity Quilt will be raffled off to a lucky winner. I can hardly believe it's been a year since this beauty was created. Several of us have had the pleasure to travel with the quilt to guilds, to retreats, to the Yuba City Racquet Club and other locations letting people know about Valley Quilt Guild and the story of the creation of Traditional With a Twist. If YOU haven't purchased your tickets yet, YOU still have time but time is running out. If YOU don't buy tickets, YOU can't win the quilt! Sew, get your tickets purchased before the show to ensure YOU have a chance to win Traditional With a Twist.

Lastly, although what WE do is traditional (quilting) I am excited for us to come together and put on a show with a bit of Y-S Valley Quilt Guild TWIST!

See YOU at the show,

Deanna

WE WANT YOU!

Fat Quarter Fun

Happy Valentines' and Presidents' Days! The theme for February will be looking ahead to March and include St. Patrick's Day and Fabric With a Twist.

Community Service

Our guild is so supportive of all the places that we donate quilts. Thank you to each one of you who had a part in making this possible. We especially appreciate those who donate completed quilts (not that we don't appreciate those who donate part of the process). Everyone is vital to the process but special kudos to Barb Buehrle, Sandra Torres, Kathy Mackey, Gail Campbell, Nicki Lura and Kathy O'Donnell who gave us completed quilts.

Thank you to Barb Gilmore, Millie Berryhill, Marsha Biggs, Melanee Vierra, Rosie Stearns, Valerie Ross, Marilyn Hill, Dixie Hargrove, Jan Thompson, Dee Jagerhorn, Joann Thomas, Valerie Ross, Bonnie Jackman, Vicki Meyer, Debra Murphy, Bonnie Sloan, Barbara Bennett (who added again to our stash of fabric and kits, Vera Smith, Joan Sampson, Betty Harris, Helen Sousa and Janet Givens. Thanks too to Bonnie Sloan, new member who has a longarm business, and who is helping quilt community service quilts.

If I have missed your name, I apologize. I can't always tell from the sign up book what to give our members credit for. Thank you and know that you are all appreciated.

Northern California Quilt Council

January's meeting was by way of Zoom. The topic was "Fundraising" and there were lots of ideas. There were several ideas, but two in particular were having "A Quilter's Yard Hop" and publishing a book. Information about both of these are included on the NCQC website at ncqc.net/guild fundraising.com. Both were quite interesting. The yard hop sounds like a lot of fun, even though it is also quite a bit of work and coordination between 3-4 locations on 3 consecutive days, and that guild did it in 2 different months. They grossed $100,000 and had very little, if any, expenses to pay out. There were other suggestions which can be seen on the NCQC website.

Call to Order: A Meeting of the Valley Quilt Guild Board was held on February 7, 2022 at the Crossroads Community Church. It was called to order at 4:06 pm.

Secretary: A motion to approve the minutes of the November meeting as written was made by Cooky Amarel and seconded by Michelle Jones. A unanimous vote to approve followed. Correspondence: There was a card from the Mary Overton family acknowledging condolences from the Guild.

Treasurer: We have a checking balance of $4,126.03 and a savings balance of $11,943.55. The Quilt Show balance is $7,436.01 making our combined total $23,505.59.

Old Business:

Meeting Venues – Our February and March meetings will be at Gray Avenue Church. Colleen will check with Gray Avenue Church to try and schedule April and May there also. The Marjan Kluepful workshop on February 26 will be at the Rideout Conference Center.

Internal Audit Update – The Internal Audit is complete.

New Business:

Bylaws, Policies & Job Duties – There were no changes in the Bylaws so no vote was needed at the general meeting. A motion was made by Linda Matsumoto and seconded by Carleen Hagen to approve the Job Duties and Policies as revised by the committee. A unanimous vote to approve followed.

1099 Requirements for people quilting for Community Service – It has been brought to our attention that anyone earning more than $599 needs to be issued a 1099 for their earnings. It was decided that Community Service will watch for quilters that approach this threshold and will have them fill out a W-9 (gives the guild treasurer the information she needs) when necessary.

Bookkeeper – The possibility of a bookkeeper was discussed and it was deemed not necessary at this time.

New Member Welcome – The possibility of having an existing guild member paired with a new member to help them navigate meetings, classes and answer questions was discussed. It was decided to ask for member volunteers first and then ask new members if they would like this assistance when they join.

Community Service Quilt Donation Requests – Community Service has received letters from Children's Hope (Foster Family Agency) and from Yuba Sutter Dialysis requesting quilt donations. After a discussion by the board a motion was made by Deanna Williams and seconded by Carleen Hagen to fill these requests as we are able to (availability of donation quilts). A unanimous vote to approve followed. It was reiterated that for a group to receive quilt donations from the guild, the guild must have a letter of request from the group and the approval of the board.

Vice Presidents Update:

Sandra Mollon is scheduled to present her trunk show for the February 23, 2022 meeting. Marjan Kluepfel will have a workshop (Fabric Sculptures) on February 26, 2022. March will feature two members and an affiliate speaker.

Community Service: Received another fabric donation of good fabric

Opportunity Quilt: Went to Quilt Guilds of the North Quarter

Membership: We have 162 members including 2 junior members and 9 affiliates

Quilt Show 2022: The Quilt Show meeting on February 3 went well. There was a discussion on the need to increase the budget for the Friday lunch. They are doing individual sack lunches taking Covid safety into account. A motion was made by Eileen Milligan and seconded by Linda Matsmoto to double the $250 budget making it $500. A unanimous vote to approve followed. It was decided that the Challenge Quilts from 2020 and 2021 would be included in the quilt show as available. Colleen Pelfrey is working on contacting people who made quilts for those years.

Adjournment: The meeting was adjourned at 5:25 pm.

The next Board Meeting will be March 14, 2022 at 4 pm at Community Crossroads Church.

Respectfully submitted,

Eileen Milligan, Co-Secretary
