February 2018

Notes from Janell

The Quilt Show is just a few weeks away and Red and White is everywhere! I am excited to hear the number of quilts that are in the show, you will not be disappointed.

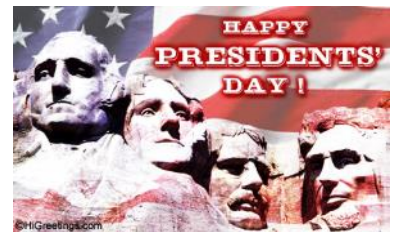

A huge thank you to the Committee for all their hard work so far and the army of volunteers it will still take to put on this amazing show. Be sure to sign up to help at the meeting if you are available. I look forward to seeing you all there.

We are in need of a Quilt Show Chair for 2019 as well as some other helpers for that team. If you have ever thought about helping on that committee please consider stepping up. If you have any questions on what it would entail, please let me know and we can set up a meeting with past chairs.

Janell Willis, President

Beryl Burtis will be missed. . .

Beryl Burtis, our mom, passed away on February 11. She was a founding member of the guild in 1982 and remained active in the guild the rest of her life. From the meetings, to the fair, to the quilt show, to community service, she was always willing to jump in and help where she could.

She co-chaired the quilt show, was a co-featured quilter, and although we didn't count, we suspect she may have made over 100 community service quilts for foster kids.

She counted many of you as friends. She hand quilted with the Methodist women, hosted Wednesday night quilting, and sewed with the Thursday Stitchers for years. In the last couple of years, quilting was a way she could continue to contribute to society, and it made her happy.

She was sweet and loving and we already miss her. If you feel the need to do something, make a community service quilt in her honor.

Rhapsody in Red ~ 2018 Quilt Show

We are less than 30 days from "Rhapsody in Red". Don't forget to sign up to help during the meeting. We will have signup sheets ready for you.

Those helping with the windsocks on Thursday, 8 March, please be at the fairgrounds by 8 AM. The fair staff will be there at 9 AM to start hanging the windsocks.

We will have postcards and posters at the meeting if you need any. I will have show pins as well, so stop by and see me.

This will be a great show and I am looking forward to seeing the hall filled with red and white quilts. We have a great layout for the show and a few surprises as well for you. At layout meeting this month, we had 259 quilts submitted to the show and 199 of these were red and white. Great job to all those that entered quilts.

Our featured quilt collection will include 9 quilts from Northern California Quilt Guilds (Diablo Valley Quilters, Orland Quilters, Oroville Piecemakers, Pacific Flyaway Quilters, Paradise ridge Quilters, Quilters Sew-iety of Redding, River City Quilt Guild, Santa Rosa Quilt Guild) and our own entry from Valley Quilt Guild.

Spread Some Sunshine

Many of you may not know that the VQG has a Sunshine Person. This position is responsible to send a greeting card to any member who has had surgery, illness, or lost a member of their immediate family.

I can only do that with your help. While some members wish to remain private about these issues, many people welcome just a quick card that can brighten their day and let them know that others are thinking of them.

Help me be aware of anyone that might appreciate this. You can e-mail me with this information.

Thanks in advance!

Linda Matsumoto

Northern California Quilt Council

The January meeting was a group of nine teachers showing their techniques at an "All Star Review". They each had 12 minutes to show what they did at nine different stations with chairs set up in front of each station. There was enough time during the morning so that you could rotate around and check out 7 of the 9 teachers, or stay and listen to the same one over again. Several of the teachers have been to our guild already, some of them many years ago. Linda Wagner is now doing very interesting pieced borders. Colleen Granger is "Playing with Pre-Cuts", and Deborah Miller has a neat technique for piecing orange peel curves perfectly. This set-up allows for more time to learn what the teachers have to offer and actually see them in action. I would recommend attending this meeting to anyone who would like to see what NCQC is all about.

The next meeting will be in April and will again be "Meet the Teachers". This is also a good meeting to attend as you get a brief glimpse of what each teacher has to offer. If what they have on display interests you, you have a chance to talk to them. Come and join the fun.

Programs and Speakers

We started out the New Year right. At the January meeting, Darla Holt, Emily Hyatt, and Tammy Morrison did a great job presenting their quilts to the guild. A big thank you to them for volunteering to share. Janell Willis and Diane Leighton did a nice job putting together and presenting a history of the guild followed by a history quiz. Thank you to them as well. I know I learned some stuff I didn't know.

At the February meeting, we will have Ingrid Cattaneo lecturing on Fabric Collage Made Easy, followed by a Friday/Saturday class on an awesome fabric collage rooster. There are still a few spots left in the class. (For those of you not at the last meeting, Sherri McConnell had to cancel due to her husband's health issues.) In March, Lynne Pillus will be lecturing on mechanical quilts (look her up online – the mechanical quilts are really cool).

On March 31, we'll have a Free Sew Day from 9 am to 3 pm at the Rideout Conference Center. I'm hoping some of you will join me in making some fidget quilts requested by Rideout (who let us use their conference center). I'll have some samples at the February meeting.

Analie Belden will join us at our April meeting, speaking on the Dresden Dance, and will be teaching a Friday/Saturday class on Thoroughly Modern Dresden. There are still spaces in that class as well.

Please feel free to contact us if you have ideas for programs or speakers or classes, or if you have questions.

Fat Chance

Thanks to everyone participating in Fat Chance every month! When we started, we were fortunate to fill just one container. Now there are three with the possibility of adding a fourth basket.

February's theme is "Celebrate President's Day". The colors to celebrate with are the traditional red, white, and blue.

QGNQ ~ Quilt Guilds of the North Quarter

We had another really big group attend the meeting – approx. 77 were in attendance. We met in the conference room at Gold Country Casino and had at least 8 opportunity quilts on display. I was able to add 6 quilt shows to my ongoing list of shows.

One topic discussed was: Make sure you file all your guild reports, such as the raffle report due every year. Another item brought up was the rising cost of guild liability insurance. The group in Southern California known as SCCQG (similar to NCQC) offers guild insurance for an extremely low rate, however it does not cover any property the guild might own. Several guilds have joined SCCQG for the basic liability insurance, and plan to self-insure for any property the guild may own. In doing this they decided to set aside funds every year to help cover the loss or damage done to any of the guild assets. This will be a lot cheaper in the long run than having to pay the high insurance rates every year.

The next meeting will be hosted by the Scott Valley Quilters of Etna on April 28. The weather should be nice and the wild flowers starting to bloom, so it should be a good weekend trip. Come join us if you can.

Board Meeting Minutes

VALLEY QUILT GUILD BOARD MEETING

February 12, 2018

Members Present: Janell Willis, Colleen Pelfrey, Eileen Milligan, Diana Craddock, Gloria Adams, Sharon Easter, Billie Lindgren, Diane Leighton, Joetta Danielson, Karen Peters, and DeRay Jensen.

Call to order: A meeting of the Valley Quilt Guild Board was held at 519 D Street in Marysville on February 12, 2018. It was called to order by President Janell Willis at 4:06 pm.

President remarks:

Janell welcomed members. She stated that there are members of our Guild that are ill, facing surgery, and lost loved ones. She reminded us of the importance to be kind to others.

Secretary: A motion was made and seconded (Diane/Gloria) to accept January minutes as written. Unanimous vote to approve.

Correspondence was received from Gwen from Yountville Veterans Home Holiday Gift Project thanking the Guild for our involvement in this project. They are very thankful for all they received. The effort put into shopping, and transporting the items is greatly appreciated!

Treasurer: Checking balance as of February 1, 2018: $7,903.67. Savings balance is $16,071.62.

Vice President: Speakers are confirmed through April.

Unfinished Business:

Filing of 1099's. Diana C. and Sharon Easter completed the task. In addition, the RRFI's are filed and the annual sales tax documents are completed.

Quilt Show updates:

DeRay stated that all is going well. The people in charge of the various committees are doing an outstanding job and on schedule. There will be sign ups at the February Guild meeting for any additional help they will need for setup and the days of the Quilt Show.

We currently have 260 quilts entered with 200 of those being red and white. Eight (8) Guilds have submitted their red and white quilt for the Featured Quilts Section of our show. We have 20 Vendors.

Camp Singer youth will be helping again this year with set-up on Friday. We still need more members to sign up to help with set-up.

Presale tickets are still available.

The Prospect booklet put out by the Appeal Democrat was in error. There is NO country store on Saturday.

Quilt Show 2019:

An e-mail was sent out to all members asking for volunteers to be in charge. At this point, we have not received a response.

New Business

Facility (Cal Trans). They hope to have parking lot open by February meeting. Solar panels should all be installed by then.

Committee Reports:Vice Presidents:

February 28, 2018 is Ingrid Cattaneo – Fabric Collage Made Easy. Class for Fabric Collage Rooster is March 3 from 9 to 3 at Rideout Conference Center. There are still openings.

March 28 is Lynne Pillus – Mechanical Quilts – check out her website to see her quilts. No Class.

March 31 from 9 to 3 is a Free Sew Day. You can work on your own project or make a Fidget Quilt to donate to the hospital. They let us use their Conference Room for free and it is our way of thanking them.

April 25 is Anelie Belden – Dresden Dance. Her class is April 28 -9 to 3 at Rideout Conference Center. Thoroughly Modern Dresden.

Community Service:

Diane reports things are going well. Thank you to those who have picked up fabric to make quilts and those who have turned in quilts.

Opportunity Quilt:

Billie said things are going well. They currently have sold $1900 worth of tickets.

Membership:

We currently have 143 members and 7 affiliate members.

By Law Committee:

Members are Diane L., Cookie and De Ray. They are still in the process of reviewing.

UFO:

So far there has been interest shown and people have signed up to get their unfinished projects completed. There is still time to sign up and be encouraged to tackle those projects.

Block of the Month:

Eileen Milligan has volunteered to be in charge. She will keep it simple with all skill levels in mind. If you are new to our Guild and/or quilting, this is a good way to learn techniques and improve your skills. Eileen and others are willing to help answer questions if you need help to complete the block.

Next Board Meeting: March 12, 2018 at 519 D St. in Marysville. Meeting begins at 4:00.

Adjournment: Meeting was adjourned at 5:19 pm.

Respectfully Submitted,

Gloria Adams
